Task 4

Paragraph 2

At first, Clara decided to turn a blind eye on this unexpected offer. However, there were some stressful thoughts forming at the back of her mind. What if this opportunity would help her to improve her marks? Moreover, sooner or later she would have to enter a university, so this chance to broaden her knowledge seemed not that bad.

Paragraph 4

Clara was on the verge of tears after hearing that comment. Poor girl's mind has gone hectic and her heart was pounding. She decided to do something in one go to prove her classmates wrong. Clara has made an announcement in front of her class with an idea of starting a competition. The winner would have entered the programme. The girl has took this challenge really serious.

Paragraph 6.

To put everything straight forward - although Clara was looking forward to win the competition, she lost it. She has been having a difficult time accepting the fact that her efforts turned out to be not that rewarding as she hoped. Clara's chance to enter the programme, that she has been taking for granted, changed her ~~relationships~~ relationships with classmates and teachers. Everyone was ~~was~~ laughing at her failure instead of comforting the girl!
