Paragraph 2
Harry, his former classmate who wrote to him once in a blue moon, informed that he had decided to start a new business. Oliver had always envied Harry, but it was the last straw! If Oliver had been such a rich person, he would have succeeded in everything. Then Oliver continued reading and was flabbergasted: Harry offered him to be in his element and become the vice-president of his company.

Paragraph 4

Oliver imagined every scenario in which he would not be able to make ends meet after a possible crisis of Harry's new company. ~~So, he has been~~ "I have been thinking about it and suffering from anxiety all night," understood he and became even more pathetic. But Harry was waiting for his response, and it would have been rude to refuse without any explanation.

Paragraph 6

The team told Oliver about his future high status and a posh flat he would live in.

Oliver was encouraged and thought, "Why am I constantly thinking about horrible outcomes? Maybe, Harry is so rich because he always takes advantage of the risks!"

Finally, he stopped being reluctant and accepted the offer. ~~Now~~ All the predictions came true, and Oliver often thought, "If only I could stop my anxiety earlier!"
