TASK 4

Paragraph 2:

The email contained a colorful invitation, which the author had prepared himself, personally for Oliver, offering him to join a project, as Oliver is in his element, when working with computers.

It was a once in a blue moon opportunity for Oliver. And it could have become the final straw if he had already decided to leave his current work.

Paragraph 4:

Oliver started to analyse his life at the moment. For the past few years he has been working non-stop to make ends meet. By and large was he tired and felt quite pathetic. Had he declined the offer immediately, he would have lost a unique chance to alter his life. Still he was feeling extremely anxious and contemplating, whether he should agree to this life-changing proposal.

Paragraph 6:

Finally, Oliver decided to take a risk and change his job. When he approached his posh and intimidating boss to discuss his wish to step down, the boss appeared quite reluctant. During their conversation Oliver has been feeling mildly irritated, because he realised that the boss has been taking advantage of Oliver's hard-working nature all these years. Leaving for a new job very positively affected whole Oliver's life.
