Task 4.

Paragraph 2.

Oliver had wanted to avoid to be in one's element but then he felt that it would be a possibility to change the predictability of his action and routine. It needed to mention that his life hadn't been done better by someone. Once in

A blue moon ^{Oliver} he would see the email, before he decided to make the final straw. Oliver predicted to stop to be the same person.

Paragraph 4.

Oliver could sleep only after he made the right decision about what to do with the letter. Something suddenly reminded him about his poor life, Oliver thought: "I have been making ends meet in some years, I have to change it by and large." To be pathetic is not an appropriate style. After some hours of thinking he went to bed and promoted making this decision.

Paragraph 6.

Oliver was shocked about so stunning meeting. Moreover, he pushed to carry on working there. "I am so annoying because I didn't have a desire to change anything before it. I can only regret about opportunities that I have passed," admitted Oliver. Then he wondered to take advantage of all activities that luckily he ~~could~~ could part take part in. Oliver denied to be reluctant and chose to stay in new places.
