Task 4.

Paragraph 2: His routine being interrupted ~~was~~ was once in a blue moon. Intimidated, Oliver sat in silence, staring at the screen. But curiosity got to him. The final straw was the ticking of a grandfather clock, its never-changing temper leaving Oliver desperate ~~for~~ for something new. If only had he ~~known~~ known what was inside, he would've clicked that button faster than ever! A job offer with his current wage quadrupled? He had never seen such money ever!

Paragraph 4: 'I've been dreaming of a lavish life for ages ~~and~~, and it's one signed paper away from me at the moment,' thought Oliver, staring at the last ten-dollar bill in his wallet. By and large, his current income was simply pathetic — it was barely enough to make ends meet. It was only the sun rising that shook up Oliver and made him realise for how long he had been awake thinking.

Paragraph 6: Oliver took a deep breath and made a vital decision. He signed the contract. And his life had never been the same since! It seemed like

Oliver became the most exuberant human being. 'If only I could go back in time to tell my past self to not be reluctant to change and to take advantage of every new opportunity in hand, I would've been the CEO of this company already!' Oliver used to say, laughingly.

Task 5.

1. A busybody is a person that interferes in things they shouldn't.
2. It means to be ~~in anticipation of~~ ^{in anticipation of} and ready for something.
3. It means to come to a conclusion in which both sides of a debate remain unchanged in their beliefs.
4. It means moving excessively slow, stagnating, as if being stuck in a mud.
5. It means to come to a result, to turn out.

Task 6.

1. She has never experienced such pressure before.
2. I should have told you earlier.
3. It was his honesty that impressed me.
4. Had she known the truth, she would have reacted differently.
5. The plan was believed to be unrealistic.
6. Although he was exhausted, he kept working.
7. It was such a complicated task that few completed it.

Task 7.

1. It wasn't Newton but Darwin who developed the theory of evolution by natural selection.

2. It wasn't Einstein but Rosalind Franklin who discovered the structure of DNA.
3. It wasn't Curie but Sir Graham Bell who invented the telephone.
4. It wasn't Darwin but Newton who discovered gravity.
5. It wasn't Tesla but Joule who developed the first steam engine.
