REDUCE SPEED NOW.

The advertisement "Reduce speed now" can be met on the road at places where car accidents happen regularly. It is supposed to make drivers slow down in order not to cause a dangerous situation. This advertisement might refer to people who like to drive fast and think they are the "kings" on the road. To people who strongly believe that everybody must make the traffic free for them. I guess people might take into consideration the advertisement "Reduce speed now" because it presents the rule in the simplest way that is possible.
