Paragraph 2

Oliver opened an email and his jaw dropped. "Be in our element and once in a blue moon you will be able to allow yourself everything! Your final straw is to accept our offer — don't miss your chance!" was written there. Oliver had never tried ~~some~~ anything risky before. He said: "If I only hadn't been born so weak, I would have worked in such company."

Paragraph 4

Oliver couldn't sleep for a week thinking about this email. ~~It~~ ^{He} was nervous for. "I have been working colleagues for ages! I can't just leave them!" — said Oliver. By and large, he came to his friend and told him everything about this situation. His friend answered him: "Dude, you're so pathetic! Don't worry about it! You can't make ends meet on your job!" And Oliver understood, what his friend meant.

Paragraph 6

After the conversation Oliver came home. He was ~~scared~~ ^{afraid} to ~~attend~~ attend that ~~new~~ project but he really wanted to take advantage of that workplace. He called his friend and that answered him: "You're making me see red! You can become a reluctant worker of that project. If you decline, you can regret it for the rest of your life!" and he cancelled the call. "I'm such a push" — thought Oliver. ~~But now he understood that he must become a braver person.~~
