Paragraph 2.

~~Oliver~~ Oliver had a feeling that offers like that are received once in a blue moon. He was invited to take part in a new satellite construction in another city. For many years he had lived his dull life, and now he had got this opportunity that was exactly in his element. If he hadn't agreed, what would have he done with his life? This project was his final straw.

Paragraph 4.

Hardly had the dawn lit his room when Oliver took his phone and typed the following response: "I have been thinking about your offer by and large and have decided to join. I am tired struggling every day to make ends meet!" Then he reread his email and deleted the last sentence in order not to sound ~~so~~ pathetic. Soon he got an invitation to an informal meeting.

Paragraph 6.

Yet Oliver's friends stayed reluctant, so he met them the next day and said: "Guys, I don't want to seem pushy, but I feel like you are constantly telling me what to do with my life. I've decided to take advantage of the situation I am in and have already signed the contract. Frankly speaking, if you hadn't try to put me off, I could have agreed much sooner!"
