Task 8

2. Sport shoes are required.

- The advertisement I've chosen might be seen in some shops, especially the sports ones. It also might be seen in places where people do exercises. The advertisement I've chosen might refer to people that do not have any sports shoes for exercises. For example, it might refer to people that want to participate in a race or a marathon. The person might take into consideration the advertisement I've chosen because if you participate in either a race or a marathon, you will need a good pair of sports shoes, especially from a reliable brand.
