Task 4.

Paragraph 2.

If somebody else was <sup>in</sup> ~~at~~ Clara's place, they would reject this offer immediately. But Clara decided to turn a blind eye at it for a while ~~and~~ and went to school. Yet the idea of using this <sup>given</sup> opportunity has not been forgotten and has been on the back of Clara's mind the whole day. She understood that she had to make the final choice sooner or later.

Paragraph 4.

And she heard it exactly when she has already been on the verge of rejecting the offer, so that comment made her so angry and hctic. Not thinking about the consequences she ~~decided~~ texted her father that she did want to participate and he solved the problem in one go by buying her a place in this ~~program~~ programme, making her a winner of a competition among other participants.

~~Paragraph~~ Paragraph 6.

Yet there was one student who was straight forward enough. He said: "You must have forgotten <sup>about</sup> those who really need this programme, you should not take everything for granted just because you are wealthy". Clara felt guilty and texted the teachers that she could not <sup>go</sup> ~~come~~. So another student got the rewarding ~~same~~ <sup>game winning</sup> ~~of the~~ ~~contest~~. This time next week she will have been flying to the USA for <sup>already</sup> 2 hours. ~~already~~.
